Description

Conservation Framed with AR70 Glass.

HOPE, one of the world's most powerful idioms, realised in this stunningly unique spherical Limited Edition artwork. A combustible collective of creative energy bubbles and brews within, and explodes in a fiesta of colour and texture. A representation of mankind's primeval power and force that cannot be restricted or contained. An illusion of depth carries hope into the epicentre of this incredible 3D piece; the universally iconic yellow smiles sitting at the foot of jewel encrusted wings and Asian peacock feathers.

This artwork forms one of a complementary pair which look stunning when hung together. Complete the pair.
