Conservation Framed with AR70 Glass.

30mph (Dandelion, Buttercup & Brome)

Digital print with silver ink.

ED. /25

A 30mph sign from Sussex, painted with some of the plants growing in the verge nearby. Though perhaps insignificant to us, road verges have become an important wild habitat. Managing them all for nature would create a huge connected network across the country and increase biodiversity. Are we prepared to change our priorities?
