Description

This piece is inspired by carretto siciliano, (or traditional Sicilian carts). These elaborately decorated two wheeled donkey or horse drawn carts would generally feature bright & bold geometric patterns along with historical or folkloric scenes painted on them.

'Bedda Matri!' is a common Sicilian phrase which translates in English to 'Beautiful Mother!' and is used as an exclamation in many ways, from expressing surprise and amazement to shock and frustration.

*Water gilded with 23.5ct gold to a mirror finish.

*Resin faux acid etched letters & rope motif.

*Oil gilded with 22ct gold to a matte finish on the borders & polka dots with directional burnished stripe detail.

*Inlaid with green mother of pearl & white fan abalone shell.

*Finished with a vintage wooden frame with leaf carved details and gold edging.
